KMAP GENERAL BULLETIN 24092

Supportive Housing Services: Operation Community Integration Behavioral Health Programming- Provider Expansion

Effective with dates of service retroactive to January 1, 2017, reimbursement will be provided to the affiliate Provider Type/Provider Specialty (PT/PS) 11/122 of a Community Mental Health Center (CMHC) for supportive services (H0037 and H0037-HK) for the targeted populations listed in the Supportive Housing Services: Operation Community Integration (OCI) Behavioral Health Programming.

Impacted claims will be reprocessed, and no further action will be needed from the providers.

For more information regarding Supportive Housing, please refer to the Mental Health Fee-for-Service Provider Manual on the Kansas Medical Assistance Program (KMAP) website.

Note: The effective date of the policy is January 1, 2017. The implementation of State policy by the KanCare Managed Care Organizations (MCOs) may vary from the date noted in the KMAP bulletins. The KanCare Open Claims Resolution Log on the KMAP Bulletins page documents the MCO system status for policy implementation and any associated reprocessing completion dates once the policy is implemented.
